Reissue 10/066,475 (US Pat No. 6,021,265)

Note: All claims are to be examined. There is no presumption of validity attached to the claims which were previously issued in the parent. Applicant has surrendered the claims in filing the Reissue application.

Note: Reissue applications filed after 11/29/00 are subject to Restriction Practice

1. The Preliminary Amendment, at page 14, includes an offer to surrender the patent. The original patent must be received before this reissue application can be allowed. See 37 CFR 1.178 (Use form paragraph 14.05)
2. Make sure all art cited in parent is included on either an 892 or 1449 in this case.
3. Make sure all papers are entered (e.g. Preliminary Amendment).
4. This is a broadening reissue. Please check the record of the parent case to determine if there is improper recapture. Please indicate in the Search Notes that the parent was reviewed. If there is no issue of recapture at all, then no more need be done. If there is a question, but you determine (based on your knowledge of the case, art, expertise, etc.) that there is no improper recapture, either (a) address this in the Office Action if you feel it is warranted or (b) include a note for the reviewers so they can benefit from your insights.

Note that this is just to start you off. The comments are not comprehensive.

Please return this note and include the parent case (when submitting the action for review) to expedite the review process. Also included is a Reissue Application Checklist and Reissue Guide to be used throughout the Reissue process. If you have any questions call me. Thank You.

Please safeguard the art. Office has already lost it once.
